innovate achieve lead

BITS Pilani

Pilani Campus

Course : MBAZC4171

Presented by : Group 9

Date : 02-08-2025

Title : Oreo in India – Launching and Establishing A Global Brand in Using Integrated Marketing Communications Effectively

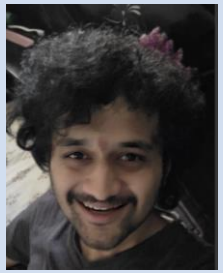
Group 09 Team Introduction

NAME	BITS ID	RESPONSIBILITY
MISHAL GUPTA	2024bc26572@wilp.bits-pilani.ac.in	Group Leader - STP analysis Meeting Coordination and Presentation Editing & Review
DEVARAJAN M	2024bc26582@wilp.bits-pilani.ac.in	Brand Introduction and Beginning of Oreo.
NARMATHA S	2024bc26642@wilp.bits-pilani.ac.in	Challenges in Establishments
AKHILESH PANDEY	2024bc26663@wilp.bits-pilani.ac.in	SWOT & PESTEL analysis Team Meeting Coordination & final Editing
AWANISH KUMAR	2024bc26664@wilp.bits-pilani.ac.in	PESTEL analysis
MANOJ KESANUPALLI	2024bc26635@wilp.bits-pilani.ac.in	4P- Product
PYDIPATY NIKHILESH TEJA	2024bc26589@wilp.bits-pilani.ac.in	4P- Price and Place
RAVEENA S	2024bc26594@wilp.bits-pilani.ac.in	4P- Promotions
ABDULKHADARJILANI SHAIK	2024bc26558@wilp.bits-pilani.ac.in	Conclusion and Learnings

Group 09 Team Introduction

MISHAL GUPTA	MANOJ KESANUPALLI	PYDIPATY NIKHILESH TEJA



ABDULKHADARJILANI SHAIK	AKHILESH PANDEY	RAVEENA S

DEVARAJAN M	NARMATHA S	AWANISH KUMAR

Company profile

Mondelēz International
SNACKING MADE RIGHT

- ❖Operates in 150+ countries
- ❖Owns iconic brands like Oreo, Cadbury, Milka, Tang, and Halls
- ❖Focuses on biscuits, baked snacks, chocolate, gum, and candy
- ❖Driven by its mission: "Snacking Made Right"

Mondelēz International
Global Headquarters,
W Fulton Market, Chicago - Waze.

Refernce : https://www.mondelezinternational.com/assets/Country/India/Press-Releases/2025/CDM-Generosity-Campaign.pdf

Background & History

- Launched in 1912 in New York, USA
- World's best-selling cookie, enjoyed in 100+ countries
- Offered in local flavours like blueberry and green tea
- Available in fun shapes and forms across markets
- Famous for the "twist, lick, dunk" ritual loved worldwide
- A cookie that brings people together across cultures and generation

2012 | 100th Birthday Celebration

2011 | Entry into Indian Market

2000 | Acquisition by Kraft Foods

1990s | Expansion into China & Europe

1942 | Export to Canada

1912 | Introduction in U.S.

Oreo's Global Journey: A Century of Sweet Success

Reference : https://www.mondelezinternational.com/our-brands/oreo/

Oreo’s Launch Strategy in India

A Global Powerhouse: Strong international brand recognition before India launch

- Backed by Mondelez: Leveraged Cadbury’s trusted distribution and retail network
- Indian Debut (2011): Entered the competitive biscuit market in March 2011
- Localized Strategy: Customized flavours, messaging, and packaging for Indian consumers
- Strong Marketing Campaign: Multi-channel promotions via TV, digital, and retail
- Engaging Brand Ritual: Promoted the global “Twist, Lick, Dunk” ritual to connect emotionally
- Youth-Centric Positioning: Targeted families and kids to build emotional affinity
- Year-One Goals:
  - Capture 1% of India’s biscuit market
  - Achieve 40% trial and 40% repeat purchase in priority markets

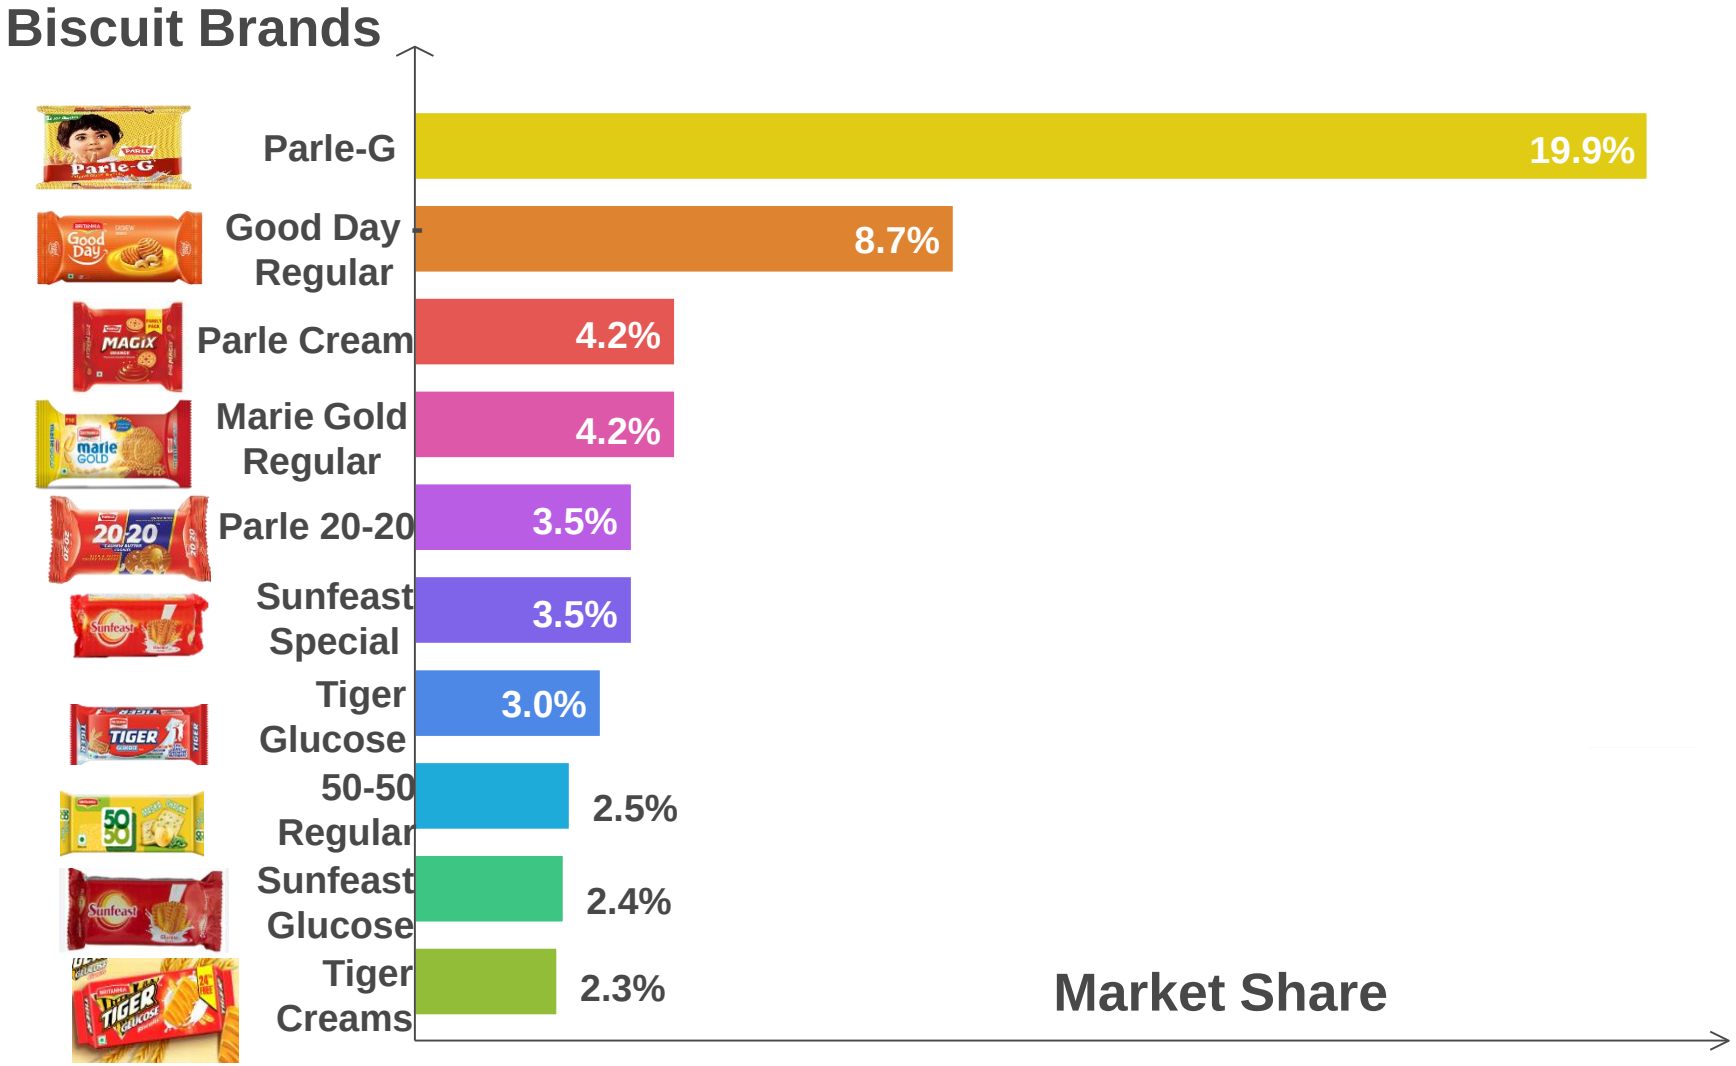
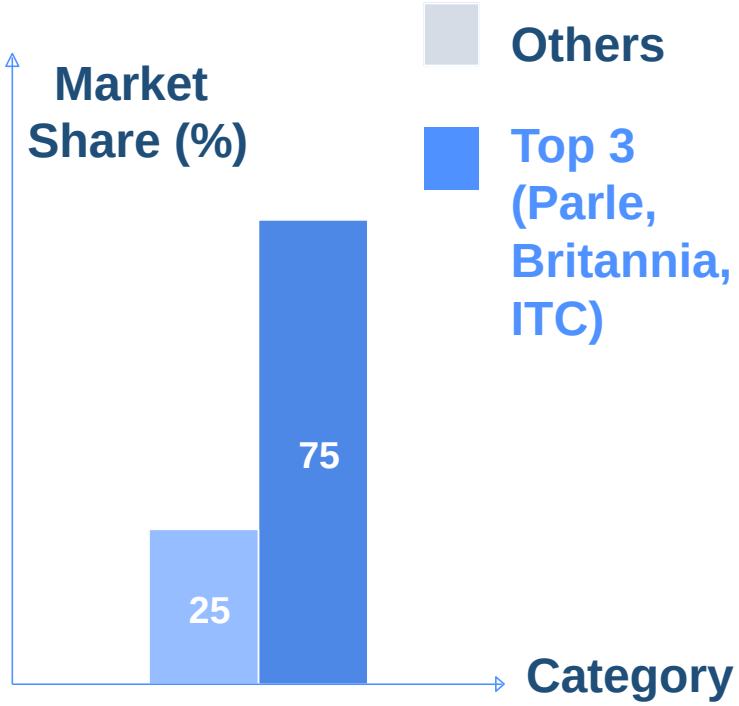
Market shares of Brands in Biscuits category (2010)





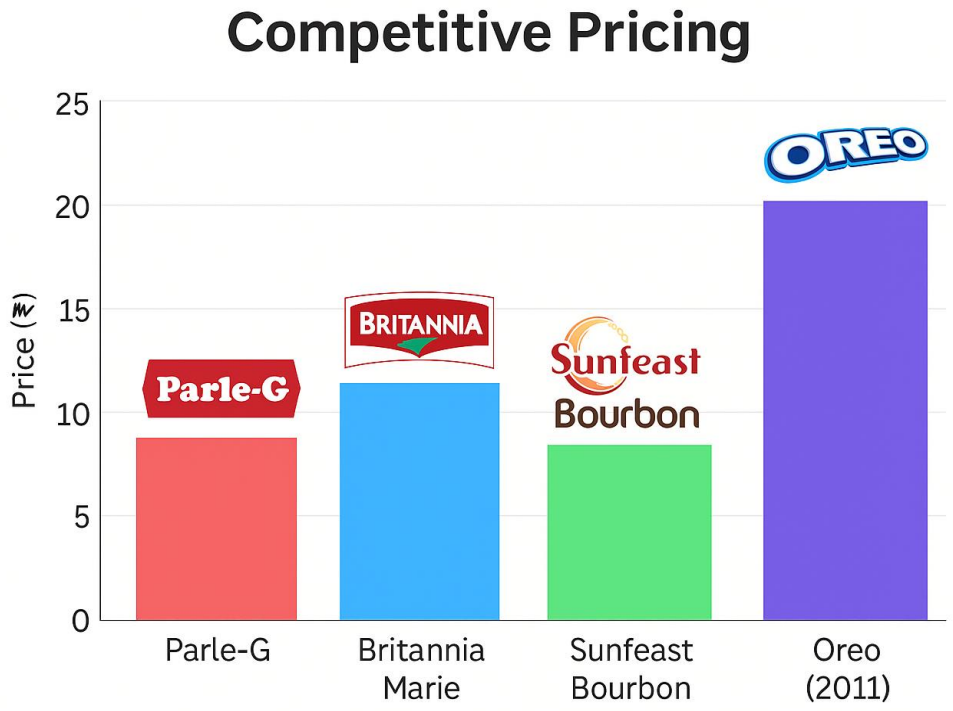
Market share dominance by Local Brand in India-2011

Challenges in Establishment

From Competitor side

Oreo's Competitive Challenges

- Strong Consumer Loyalty
- Deep Distribution Networks
- Wide Product Range
- Price Sensitivity
- Cultural Preferences
- High Brand Recognition



Competitive Pricing

Challenges in Establishment

From Consumer's side:

Oreo faced several challenges in gaining acceptance among Indian consumers because of:

- Language & Regional Diversity
- Unfamiliarity with the Brand
- Perceived as Foreign and Premium

SWOT Model Analysis

Strength

- Strong global brand equity of Oreo.
- Backed by Mondelez and Cadbury's trusted name in India.
- Unique product ritual – "Twist, Lick, Dunk" (TLD).
- Emotional, family-oriented brand positioning.
- Affordable pricing and multiple SKUs.

Weakness

- Late entrant in a saturated market.
- Low initial brand awareness in India.
- Limited differentiation in cream biscuit segment.
- High dependency on Cadbury's brand equity initially.

Opportunity

- Rising urban middle class and increasing disposable income.
- Growth in modern retail and digital media.
- Potential to expand into rural markets.
- Opportunity to innovate with local flavors.

Threat

- Dominance of Parle, Britannia, and ITC with deep distribution networks.
- Price wars and low brand loyalty in the category.
- Cultural taste preferences and resistance to foreign brands.
- Risk of limitation by local competitors..

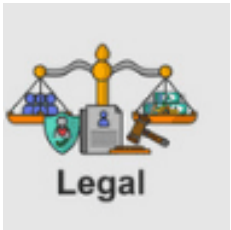
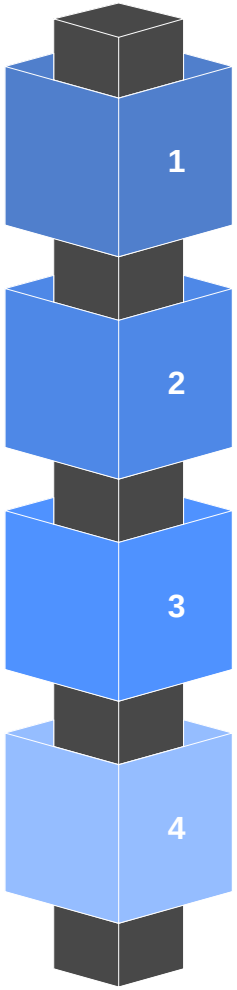
PESTLE Analysis – Indian Biscuit Market (2011)



Political	Economic	Social	Technological	Legal	Environmental
▪ Stable political environment ▪ FDI-friendly policies encouraged global brands to enter India.	• Rapid economic growth; rising middle class. • Increasing demand for packaged foods.	• Family centric culture. • Mothers as key decision-makers; • Growing preference for branded snacks.	• Growth in digital media and mobile penetration. • Increasing use of social media for brand engagement.	• Food safety and labeling regulations. • Need for compliance with FSSAI standards.	• Rising awareness of packaging waste. • Growing interest in sustainable practices.
Year ~ 2011	~ 6.6%	Growing urbanization	Digital transformation	FSSAI & FMCG standards	Sustainable pratice

Reference: https://countryeconomy.com/gdp/india?year=2011

STP – Segmentation, Targeting, Positioning



Segmentation

Demographic
- Age
- Income
- Family Structure

Geographic
- Urban
- Semi-Urban/Tier 2
- Rural India

Psychographic
- Lifestyle
- Values

Behavioral
- Occasions
- Benefits Sought

Targeting

Kids

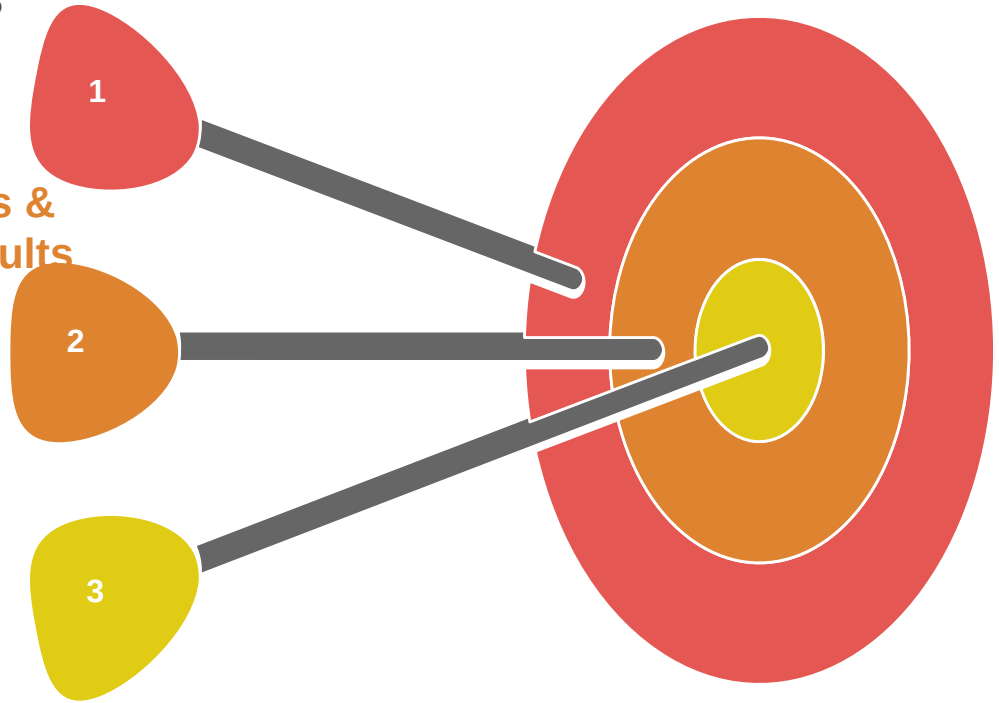
Kids (5–15 years)

Teenagers & Young Adults

(16–25 years)

Urban Families

(All Ages)



STP – Segmentation, Targeting, Positioning

STP – Segmentation, Targeting, Positioning

Positioning

Fun & Playful Experience for Kids

Oreo offers a joyful ritual for kids: Twist, Lick, Dunk.

Family Bonding & Emotional Connect

Oreo fosters cherished family moments through playful snacking.

All-round Delight – Beyond Just a Cookie

Oreo ice creams, milkshakes, & Cakes

4Ps – Product strategy

Oreo India's Product Strategy

Manufacturing & Quality

- Locally Manufactured
- Reduced Costs
- Better Distribution

Product Launch

- Classic Vanilla Crème
- Global Form Retained
- Fun, Premium Snack

Product Variants & Packaging

- Multiple SKUs
- Fun and Colorful Packaging
- Affordability and Accessibility

Customization for India

- Sweetness Level Localized
- Cream Quantity Localized
- Global Flavor Appeal

4Ps – Price Strategy

Market Penetration with Affordable Packs

- Launched with ₹5 and ₹10 SKUs for price-sensitive Indian consumers
- Enabled quick trial and reach to mass market
- Competed with Parle-G, Bourbon through volume-driven affordability.

Tiered Pricing Strategy

- ₹5: Entry-level SKU for rural/small-town markets
- ₹10: Daily consumption pack for semi-urban buyers
- ₹20+ SKUs: Family & urban segment
- Adapted to diverse income groups without affecting premium perception

No Trade Discounts During Launch

- Instead of discounts, Oreo invested in Point-of-Sale (POS) visibility
- Maintained premium brand feel by avoiding price drops
- Trade budgets used for shelf space & merchandising

4Ps – Place Strategy

Leveraging Cadbury's Distribution Power

- Oreo used Mondelez India's existing Cadbury network for fast rollout
- Enabled immediate access to retailers nationwide, boosting shelf presence

Dual Channel Strategy: Traditional & Modern Trade

- Traditional Trade: Kirana stores, local outlets — deep rural reach
- Modern Trade: Big Bazaar, Reliance Fresh, hypermarkets — urban brand visibility
- Oreo adapted layout, packaging, and shelving style per format

POS Innovation – "Blue Effect" at Retail

- Unique visual displays: Oreo-themed dispensers, shelf danglers, counter units
- Placed outside the regular biscuit shelf → high-impact placement
- "Oreo Blue" dominated visibility, triggering impulse trials.

4Ps – Promotion

❖ TLD Ritual – Twist, Lick, Dunk

- Bringing people together through the TLD ritual
- Ritual of Pleasure for the children
- Ritual of Emotion for the parents
- Address the mother as the family moments creator
- Father-child relationship

❖ Togetherness movement

- Quiz, survey, pledge, TLD games, TQ bus visited 9 cities , sample cookie corner
- Photo corner to capture fun family moments

Multi-Channel Promotion

- TV Campaign
  - At home with oreo , Make way for Play , Say it with oreo.
- Outdoor
  - Bill boards on prominent places
  - Advertainments on public transports
  - Display units in mall and major shopping outlets
- Digital
  - Facebook contest and customer engagement post
  - Social media challenges and user-generated content turn fans into ambassadors, amplifying reach through shareable content

Conclusion

- Strategic Market Entry and Credibility
  - Oreo partnered with Cadbury to leverage existing brand trust, enabling rapid penetration into India's ₹17,000 crore biscuit market dominated by Parle, Britannia, and ITC.
- Tailored Product & Pricing Strategy
  - The classic "Twist, Lick, Dunk" ritual was adapted to local tastes. Multiple pack sizes (₹5, ₹10, ₹20) drove impulse trials among kids and larger household purchases.
- Robust Distribution and In-Store Visibility
  - Heavy investment in point-of-sale materials created a "wall of blue" in traditional and modern trade, ensuring Oreo stood out before the TV campaign even launched.
- Integrated Marketing Communications (IMC) Excellence
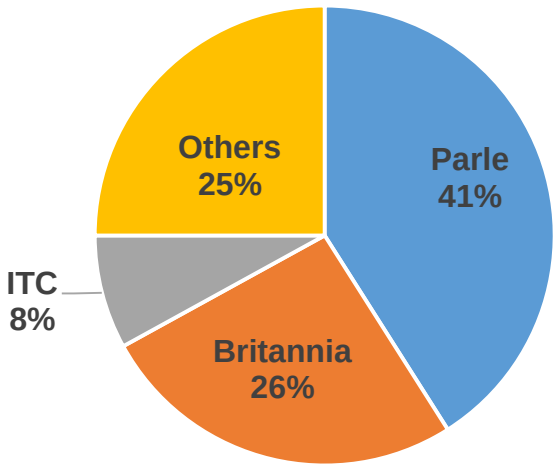
  - A cohesive mix of TV, radio, digital, out-of-home, ambient media, experiential roadshows (Oreo bus), and social media-built awareness and emotional engagement.



Biscuit Market Share 2010

OREO CADBURY

Pack Size	Price
3PC	5/-Rs
7PC	10/-Rs
14PC	20/-Rs

BUILD TRIALS AND REPEATS
Consumer Metrics	Year 1 Target	Achieved in June 2011-Adults	Achieved in June 2011-Kids
Trials	40%	50%	75%
Repeats	40%	73%	70%

Conclusion

- Consumer-Centric Messaging
  - Campaigns targeted mothers by emphasizing simple family moments and highlighted the unique joy of father–child bonding around Oreo's ritual.
- Outstanding Early Performance
  - Oreo hit its 1 percent market-share goal within six months, surpassed trial and repeat targets, and saw rapid Facebook community growth.
- Key Success Drivers
  - A unified emotional narrative, consistent global branding, aggressive distribution, and high-impact retail execution transformed Oreo from a challenger into a strong contender.
- Current Status
  - Oreo's global revenue reached $5.1 billion in 2025, reflecting a 7% year-on-year growth, supported by Mondelez's reported 3.1% rise in Q1 organic net revenue and an expected full-year growth of ~5%.

"To be different, you have to be seen as different"

Oreo Brand Share
Mar 2011 to Mar 2012 Target	1%
Achieved in Jun 2011	1%

Brand Awareness Score 2011

Adults	Oreo	Parle Kreams	Bourbon	Dark Fantasy
TOM & Spont	23	2	22	1
Total Awarness	77	83	86	47

Kids	Oreo	Parle Kreams	Bourbon	Dark Fantasy
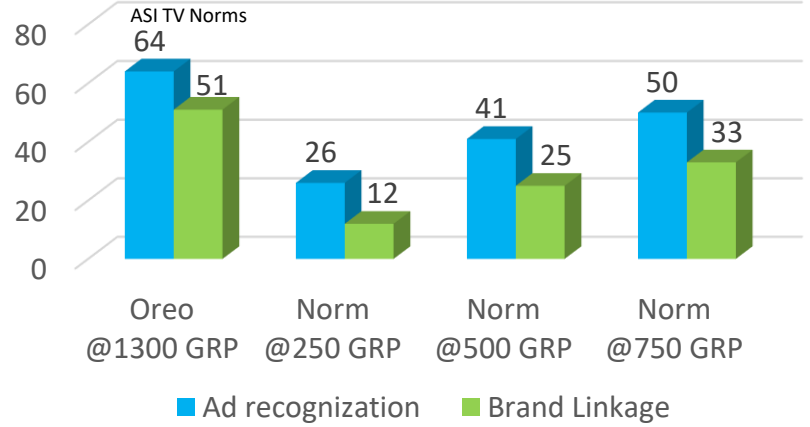
TOM & Spont	47	3	33	6
Total Awareness	93	85	94	53



Key Learnings & Takeaways

- Leverage Established Trust
  Partnering with Cadbury enabled Oreo to tap into deep consumer trust from day one, smoothing market entry and driving trial.
- Localized Pricing & Packaging
  Affordable, small-format packs made Oreo accessible to price-sensitive consumers, accelerating trial and repeat purchases.
- Ritual-Driven Engagement
  The simple “Twist, Lick, Dunk” ritual created an emotional hook, turning eating into an experience and boosting brand recall.
- Integrated, 360° Marketing
  TV, in-store, sampling + outdoor activations = mass reach with local impact.
- Rapid Trial & Repeat Focus
  Clear KPIs like 1% share and 40% repeat rate drove focused, goal-led execution
- Digital-First Evolution
  Shift to influencers, TikTok, and memes kept Oreo relevant amid India’s digital surge.
- Innovation Aligned with Trends
  Oreo Thins & limited editions tapped health and novelty trends without losing core brand identity.
- SEO & Content Strategy
  Optimizing for search and creating interactive online experiences (quizzes, AR filters) drove sustained engagement beyond paid media.
- Nostalgia & Storytelling
  Tapping into childhood memories with heritage-led campaigns sustained emotional bonds across generations.
- Agility & Adaptability
  Oreo’s shift to digital-first shows strong market listening and strategic flexibility.

Ends here…

Reference list

1. Mondelez International. (n.d.). Oreo brand page. Retrieved from https://www.mondelezinternational.com/our-brands/oreo/
2. Mondelez International. (n.d.). India press releases. Retrieved from https://www.mondelezinternational.com/india/press-releases/
3. Mondelez International. (n.d.). Red Oreo: Behind the brand. Retrieved from https://www.mondelezinternational.com/news/red-oreo_behind-the-brands/
4. Nielsen. (2010). India Biscuit Market Share Report. [Referenced in case study].
5. Nielsen. (2011). Oreo Brand Share and Market Performance Survey. [Referenced in case study].
6. IPSOS. (2011). Brand Tracking Study: Oreo India Launch. [Referenced in case study].
7. Parekh, T., & Basak, A. (2011). Oreo in India – Launching and Establishing a Global Brand in India Using Integrated Marketing Communications Effectively [Case study]. National Institute of Industrial Engineering (NITIE) & FCB Interface